

Surface mount desoldering - using a hot air gun.

Some time ago, I did a presentation to the West of Scotland Area Group on various approaches to soldering surface mount components.

The presentation included a selection of video clips of the process.

This is one of them.

Removing a faulty surface mount IC with a soldering iron can be frustrating.

This video clip shows how a surface mount IC being easily removed using a hot air gun.

Have fun!

Chic
May 2020

Click HERE to view video